

African-American History map of United States

Do not miss your chance to own a piece of history. We have exclusive rights to the only “Barack Obama African American history Map” made. This unique 54” x 66” 3 mil Mylar laminate map of the entire United States, with Barack Obama's acceptance speech, and portrait at the bottom will most surely become a collectible.

This map is a celebration of the complete history of the African American journey. Starting with the Africans arriving 1528 in South Carolina and in Jamestown in 1619 and the first African American baby, William Tucker, and ending with the inauguration of Barack Obama, our first African American President, this is valuable teaching tool for children and adults.

Some other historical events noted on the map are:

- The location and founding dates of traditional black colleges.
- The routes and trails of black explorers
- A reproduction of Marcus Garvey's Black flag
- The black post-Emancipation Press
- Underground railroad routes
- A listing of National Historic landmarks
- US map showing “slave states versus free states” from 1810-1854
- .... And much, much more
